

PSN CONFERENCE

FAYETTEVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT PRESENTS
PSN TRAINING CONFERENCE
MAY 5TH AND 6TH, 2015
Holiday Inn Fayetteville-Bordeaux
1707 Owen Drive, Fayetteville, NC 28304

Who should attend?

The Project Safe Neighborhoods (PSN) Training Conference is geared towards law enforcement professionals, both sworn and non sworn. Along with, but is not limited to; attorneys, court counselors, principals, social workers, teachers, mental health administrators, hospital personnel, parents and the faith based leaders.

Tentative Conference Agendas

- ◆ Phil Chalmers– Why Teens Kill?
“America’s Leading Authority On Juvenile Homicide”
- ◆ What is PSN?
- ◆ Educating Kids about Gun Violence
- ◆ Building & Prosecuting Gun Cases-State & Federal
- ◆ Comprehensive Firearms Investigation using NIBIN & other techniques
- ◆ Re-Entry
- ◆ FPD-Human Trafficking Response & Fayetteville's Dreamcenter
- ◆ Street Gang Awareness

*subject to change

Details

- ◇ Early registration by April 17th, fee $30.00, after this date, the fee will be $50.00. Fee includes lunch daily
- ◇ Government rate for rooms at $65.90 + tax per night (by April 30th)
- ◇ Hot Breakfast buffet can be purchased at the hotel for $9.95
- ◇ Schedule
  - Registration
May 5th 7:00am-8:00am
  - Break-outs
May 5th 8:00am-5:00pm
  - National speaker
May 6th 8:00am-4:00pm

1-800-HOLIDAY or visit www.holidayinn.com. Over the phone mention Project Safe Neighborhood. Online use group booking code PSN. Cut off date for group rate is April 30th 2015

Registration is open $30.00 Space is limited! www.ncgangcops.org

In partnership with

- ~United States Attorney's Offices, Eastern and Middle Districts Of North Carolina
- ~Department of Justice Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms & Explosives, Fayetteville Field Office
- ~North Carolina Gang Investigators Association

